Work Vessels for Vets is a Mystic, Connecticut-based, award winning, national charity that gives equipment to wounded veterans who are starting a business. Since 2008, we have equipped more than 2400 veterans in all 50 states with the tools, trucks, tractors, farm machinery, forklifts, electronics, drones and more valued at more than $3.4 M!

Often the equipment we send to veteran-entrepreneurs is adapted to accommodate their combat injuries – like the post wickets we placed on portable fencing so a triple amputee in Texas could move his sheep safely around to new grazing areas.

We achieve these remarkable results through collaborations, shared resources, partnerships with other organizations, and clever negotiations with suppliers. We cajole sellers to offer in-kind, tax-deductible donations or deep discounts. We leverage cash donations to the maximum. Our model works due to the dedication of our volunteer mentors across the nation, as well as our dedicated volunteer staff and board members. To our knowledge, there is no other organization that is solely dedicated to the mission to award equipment to injured veteran-entrepreneurs.

Meet our WVfV Ambassador

US Army Corporal Ryan Salvat of Sterling, Connecticut is a combat veteran with service-connected injuries from his tour in Afghanistan in 2010. He returned home to start Radical Roots CT, a farm where he could raise his family and help save endangered heirloom livestock breeds. For five years, he has been doing all the work by hand, (hauling bales, setting fence posts, wrangling cattle, sheep and hogs) resulting in aggravation of his injuries.

In May 2021, Work Vessels for Vets combined funds from several sources to award Ryan with a large tractor for his 300 acre farm in Sterling, CT. Now he can efficiently and safely tend to his growing herd of Lincoln Red cows, Red Devons and Scottish Highlands, as well as his heirloom sheep and heritage black Mulefoot hogs.

Ryan is also eager to “pay it forward” and assist fellow veterans so he established a nonprofit called ContemPLATE to rehabilitate veterans with PTSD through agritherapy and working with animals.

Meet our Easterseals Ambassador

Specialist Xavier Roman. “I am a former Army Combat Medic and 100% Disabled Veteran who served from 2011-2015. During my four years on active duty, I was privileged to have experienced new cultures, meet individuals I would never have met had it not been for my military service, and visited states and countries I hope to one day return to. Assigned to 1/67th Combined Arms Battalion, 2nd Brigade, 4th Infantry Division, in 2013 I deployed in support of Operation Enduring Freedom. After My transition from military service in 2015, I returned home to Connecticut and immediately began using my Post-911 G.I. Bill benefits. In 2018 I earned two associate degrees from Capital Community College, where I began my transition from medicine to social services. I am a Carpenter by trade, a skill obtained prior to the military, which has helped me find another avenue to escape mental distractions. I continue my service to Veterans as a Commissioner of Veterans Affairs for the City of Hartford and through my relationship with Easterseals - Veterans Rally Point. My Best advice to other Veterans is to never feel alone, instead, reach out to another Veteran, there will always be a Veteran willing to extend their hand...simply because.”

Impact comments: “We are so fortunate to have had Xavier Roman as part of our Easterseals Capital Region & Eastern CT Homeless Veterans Reintegration Program team. Xavier has helped countless veterans find their way to employment, a stable place to live and provided hope for a better future. He also helped to train and mentor new team members, openly sharing all the lessons he learned along the way. We very much look forward to having Xavier share his carpentry skills and talent at our new MakerSpace at Veterans Rally Point.” Ron Welch, Brigadier General U.S. Army (Ret.), VP Military Services.

Easterseals Capital Region & Eastern CT is a 501 (c) (3) non-profit organization. They have a long and proud record of service to the community.
