LATEST NEWS: Work Vessels for Vets Awards $200,000 in 2020 to Thirty Injured Veterans Across the Country

Read the full story HERE

Work Vessels for Vets is proud to announce that thirty injured veteran-owned businesses and veteran-serving nonprofits across America have received $200,000 in equipment, support and emergency funds in 2020. Since 2008 our volunteer-run charity has awarded more than $3.2 million in equipment to 2200 veteran-entrepreneurs across America. We are grateful for the hundreds of donors who helped us offer a “hand up” to send much needed equipment and support to a record number of veteran-entrepreneurs and veteran-serving nonprofits in 2020.

DONOR STORY: Outer Light Brewing Company of Groton, CT Brews Workin’ Vets NEIPA with Sales Benefitting WVfV

In October, Outer Light Brewing Company of Groton, CT announced the release of a new beer with a cause – Workin’ Vets New England IPA. This double dry hopped, Simcoe, Mosaic New England IPA, was brewed in collaboration with Work Vessels for Vets. A portion of sales of every pint served in the Outer Light taproom at Bridge Street in Groton, and all other can sales throughout Connecticut liquor stores will be donated to Work Vessels for Vets to help award equipment to injured veterans who are starting a business Read More

VETERAN STORY: Purple Heart Recipient Received $4000 in Custom Machinery from WVfV

Army Sgt Junior Daniel is a medially retired, Purple Heart recipient after 2 tours in Iraq and one in Afghanistan. His Palmer, Alaska-based company, DanChini Aero, inspects, builds and repairs world renown Piper Super Cubs that are user friendly and act as a universal tool in backcountry flying throughout the world. Work Vessels for Vets shipped over $4000 in custom machinery to bend aluminum for aircraft body repair. Read more Veteran stories HERE
